

A MELON GROWS IN KANDAHAR

Afghan Storytelling:
A Benefit for Canadian Literacy

Featuring Storyteller Aubrey Davis

Burnswest Theatre, Fort Calgary
750 - 9th Avenue SE, Calgary, Alberta
Monday, November 20, 7:30 pm

All proceeds will be donated to The Institute for Cross-cultural Exchange (ICE), which provides high quality books of select Afghan and Middle Eastern folktales to Canadian children in need.

Tickets are $15, at the door - each ticket buys four books for children!

'Illiteracy and racial prejudice have been problems since time immemorial. The Institute for Cross-cultural Exchange (ICE) is attempting to address both by providing Hoopoe Books™ free to literacy programs.'

—P.K. Page-Irwin, Honorary Chair of ICE

For ticket orders and more information, contact Gordon Rumson, at 403-265-7957 or rumsong@telus.net

To find out more about ICE, please see our website www.iceeducation.org
ICE is a Canadian charity.
Tax receipts available.

This event was made possible, in part, by:

