

A MELON GROWS IN KANDAHAR

Afghan Storytelling

Featuring Storyteller Aubrey Davis

*Part of The Ottawa Storytellers
"Stories from the Ages" Series*

Rasputin's, 696 Bronson Ave., Ottawa, ON

Saturday January 28, 2007

Doors open 6:00 p.m. for food, drink & conversation

Performer's fee will be donated to The Institute for Cross-cultural Exchange (ICE), which provides high quality books of select Afghan and Middle Eastern folktales to Canadian children in need.

Admission is Free. Donations of $8.00 welcome.

'Illiteracy and racial prejudice have been problems since time immemorial. The Institute for Cross-cultural Exchange (ICE) is attempting to address both by providing Hoopoe Books™ free to literacy programs.'

—P.K. Page-Irwin, Honorary Chair of ICE

For information, contact Jan Andrews (613)256-0353
or Rasputin's (613)230-5102
jandrews@magma.ca
www.ottawastorytellers.ca

To find out more about ICE,
please see our website www.iceeducation.org